

The Daily Courant.

Friday, January 30. 1708.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 3.

Moscow, December 28.

THE 26th Instant the Czar set out for Woronitz, to view some new Ships of War there, and to give Order that they may be finish'd and equipp'd with all Expedition, to put to Sea against the Swedes. A great Number of the Czar's Subjects that are judg'd fittest to carry Arms, are prest into the Land-Service; the Czar proposing by their Assistance to cover his Country from the Irruptions the Swedes may attempt to make into it. The Cossacks having retir'd into their own Country, 'tis suspected there is a secret Understanding between them and the Swedes. Novogrod and Smolensko are fortifying with all possible Expedition, and 10000 Men are order'd to Livonia, to strengthen the Garrisons of Narva and other Places. 'Tis reported, that by the End of next Month the Czar will be going back to Lithuania. All Imposts are doubled, for Money to carry on the War.

Cavelscroon, Jan. 11. Several Thousand Men are imbarcking here, for reinforcing his Swedish Majesty's Army in Poland. Also 600 Barrels of Powder, and above 20000 Musquers are Shipping off, together with a considerable Number of Saddles for the Cavalry and Cloaths for the Soldiers. These Transports will Sail before the End of this Month under the Convoy of 6 Men of War for Dantzick. Our Fleet is fitting out with all Diligence; and from the great Number of Bombs that are getting ready, we conjecture 'tis intended to bombard Archangel, Petersbourg, or some other Port belonging to the Muscovites.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 28.

Warsaw, Dec. 30. Madam Sinioski, Wife of the Palatine of Belz great General of the Army of the Crown, who was not long since taken Prisoner by a Party of the Swedes, but soon set at Liberty by the King of Sweden, is expected here to Day. Many are of Opinion that she was set free, in hopes she may engage the Palatine her Husband to embrace the Interest of King Stanislaus: 'Tis rumour'd likewise, that M. Carlo Marthal of the Court of the Kingdom, has been sent by King Stanislaus to the said Great General on the same Errand. In the mean Time, our Advices from Lemberg of the 21st of last Month, give the following Account of some Proceedings of that General. A great Council of the Officers of the Crown-Army was held in the Monastery of the Bernardines in that City; and the Palatine of Belz open'd the Council, by commending the Officers, who appear'd in great Number, for the Patience and Firmness they had shewn in their respective Quarters; and then proceeded to tell them, that they ought not to look upon it as a Novelty, and be surpriz'd at his causing them to Assemble in a general Council, the same thing having been formerly practis'd by those who had born his Commission before him. He exhorted them to continue to shew the same Courage, and to keep firm in the Confederacy they were engag'd in, for the Preservation of the Religion, Laws, and publick Liberty of their Country, at the Expence even of their Estates and Lives. The Swordbearer of the Crown, the Treasurer of the Court of the Kingdom, and several others of the principal Officers, mov'd, that the Estates of those who actually serve in the Army might be exempted from Winter Quarters: Then Commissaries and Deputies were nominated to settle the said Quarters, and the great General declar'd that he voluntarily consented they should have no Regard to his patrimonial Estate, if it was necessary it should contribute to the Subsistence of the Army; and the 20th he declar'd, that he would make a Free-Gift to the Troops of 10000 Crowns.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 3.

Berlin, Jan. 22. The Advices from Poland agree, that the King of Sweden with his Army has pass'd the Vistula, and is advancing towards Lithuania: 12000 Swedes and the Troops of King Stanislaus make the Van-guard.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 4.

Berlin, Jan. 28. The greatest Part of the Swedish Army is in the Palatinate of Plocko; and some Advices tell us the King of Sweden with 10 Regiments of Horse is advanc'd beyond Pultusk, to approach the Muscovites.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Feb. 3.

Dresden, Jan. 22. King Augustus our Elector, caus'd a general Diet of the Estates of this Electorate to be open'd here the 20th Instant, and the following Propositions to be made to them. I. To give good Assurances to the States General of the united Provinces of the Netherlands for the Repayment of 400000 Crowns which under their High Mightiness's Guaranty have been borrow'd for him in their Provinces. II. To consent to the Establishment of a general Excise throughout the Electorate, to supply his Occasions. III. To take the necessary Measures for securing this Country from any Invasion. And IV. To settle a sufficient Fund for defraying the Charge of the new Levies, which are continued with good Success throughout the Electorate.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 3.

Altantara, Jan. 9. To Day arriv'd here from Madrid the Marquis de Bay with several other General Officers, and to Morrow he will proceed to Badajoz. The Portuguese are drawing together some Troops at Elvas and Estremaz; upon which several several of our Regiments that were quarter'd on the Tagus, are order'd to move towards the Guadiana.

Saragossa, Jan. 12. By Direction from the Duke of Berwick, the Count d'Estain has sent a good Number of Gunners and Fire-Workers to Valencia. The Peasants, or Miquelets, begin to appear among the Mountains of Arragon; and some Days ago they intercepted and took a Convoy of 48 Mules that were going with Meal from Pina to Mequinenza, after they had put their Guard to flight. 400 Dragoons are sent from hence to Nuestra Señora de las Puentes, to keep open the Communication with Moncon and Balbastro. All King Philip's Troops are new cloth'd.

Puicorda Jan. 16. The Marquis de St. Hilaire, who commands the French Forces here, has upon some Suspicion disarm'd all our Townsmen, and sent their Arms to Perpignan. The Catalonians have convey'd a good Quantity of Ammunition and Provisions into Ugel, our Garrison not being able or not daring to hinder them. As soon as the Duke de Naxilles is come back into Roussillon, 4 Battalions of our Garrison will march out to serve elsewhere, and all the rest will be lodg'd in the Citadel. All the Impôts and Duties paid in this Town and District, are seiz'd by order from the Court of France, and apply'd towards paying the Troops.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.
